

COME TO ME,
all who labor
and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.
Matthew 11:28 ESV

The United Benefice of St Helen, Burghwallis and St Mary Magdalene, Campsall

5th July 2020

This week marks the beginning of a cautious easing of the lockdown. For us this means that we can begin holding services in church. We shall start gently trying not to put anyone at risk. Clearly, if you are supposed to remain at home please stay there; this is the safest place for you. We still have a long road ahead before we can return to normality so please be patient and don't put yourselves or other people at risk. I have been impressed speaking to people who have attended the private prayer times how careful they have been and also how they have kept up the discipline of prayer and thanksgiving. Try not to be down hearted but see in these small steps some signs of progress to a better future for us all.

Pray for the souls of

May light perpetual shine upon them

We shall continue with private prayer on Monday at Campsall and Thursday at Burghwallis. We shall also continue with our on-line service for those at home. This Sunday we shall begin with short services of morning prayer.

9.00 Recording of Holy Communion at Home – online distribution at 9.30.

10.00 Short service of Morning Prayer at Burghwallis.

(Maximum number 15)

11.00 Short Service of Morning Prayer at Campsall.

(Maximum Number 30)

This Sunday's Gospel reading speaks about Jesus coming to bear our burdens. In difficult times, when we feel lonely isolated or afraid, it is right to turn to the God of love. In Jesus he has turned his face towards us so that we may know he is near us and will help us to bear our burdens.

Fr Richard

Jesus said, "Come to me all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."
